

Teen Sleep Diary

WHAT CAN SLEEP DO FOR YOU?

- * Make it easier to learn, pay attention and solve problems
- * Give you more energy for sports and fun
- * Help to keep you healthier
- * Contribute to your body and brain development
- * Improve your mood and alertness
- * Help you to get along well with your friends, teachers, family and others
- * Allow you to perform better and enjoy life

WHY A SLEEP DIARY MAY BE HELPFUL

Sleep is vital to your health, safety and overall performance. The time you spend sleeping can help you enjoy life more. How do you know if you are getting enough good sleep and practicing healthy sleep habits? Do you see a pattern in your sleep? By keeping a sleep diary for at least one week, preferably two, you can track your sleep and wake habits and see how you are sleeping and how it affects your health and performance.

HOW TO USE THIS DIARY

Write in the diary every day. Make copies for additional weeks. You can use this as a daily diary about you and your activities, but also to see how much sleep you are getting. You can then compare how much good sleep you get and how you feel during the day. It may surprise you to see how your sleep affects everything you do during the day. There are also some helpful tips for getting a good night's sleep. Talk to your friends about their sleep and compare notes.

SLEEP TIPS FOR TEENS: WHAT CAN YOU DO TO GET BETTER SLEEP

1. Follow a schedule where you have regular bed and wake times, even on weekends, so you stay in sync with your sleep-wake cycle.
2. Try to get at least 8-1/2 hours of sleep each night, preferably around 9-1/4 hours.
Time I will go to bed on school nights _____ pm.
3. Create your bedroom environment so that it is comfortable, relaxing, quiet, cool and dark. Try keeping the lights dim at night to prepare you for sleep. In the morning, bright light can help you become alert.
4. It's best to not use televisions, computers or do homework in your bedroom close to bedtime.
What's in my bedroom that keeps me from sleeping:
 TV Computer Homework Video games Music
 Phone Lights Pets Other _____
5. Set up a regular bedtime routine that helps you to fall asleep. This can include taking a warm bath or shower, reading something you enjoy, listening to music that is not too alerting or thinking pleasant thoughts. What I will do one hour before bed that is relaxing _____
6. Your mattress and pillow(s) should be comfortable.
7. Avoid caffeine (soda, energy drinks, coffee, tea, chocolate) close to bedtime. They can keep you awake.
8. Avoid alcohol and nicotine.
9. Don't go to bed too hungry or too full. Try light, nutritious snacks.
10. Exercise regularly to promote sleep, but complete your workout at least a few hours before bedtime.
